

Please do not do anything that weakens the ability of each state to limit unwanted solicitation calls. As a resident of Indiana, I entered the states do not call program and am pleased that the unwanted sales calls have stopped. I do not want action from the federal government that will weaken these laws and allow these irritating intrusions to resume.

David Tunnell